DETAILED ACTION

Double Patenting

1. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321© may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

2. Claims 1-12 and 14-39 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-7 and claims 1-23 of U.S. Patent No. 6342110 and 6592686, respectively. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the claimed Pb alloy compositions and process steps are overlapped by the cited patents.

3. Claims 1-12, 14-23, 26, and 31-39 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-7 and claims 1-3 of U.S. Patent No. 6086691. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the claimed Pb alloy compositions and process steps are overlapped by the cited patents.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

5. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

6. Claims 1-12, 14-27, 29, and 31-39 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over JP 06-267544.

7. JP 06-267544 discloses the features including cold working the Pb-Sn-Ca alloy at temperature 120 °C or less [0009] to form a electrode plate, recrystallization annealing the cold worked plate at temperature 60° or more [0010]. The Pb-Sn-Ca alloy contains 0.05-0.08 wt.% Ca and 0.5-2.0 wt.% Sn [0011]. The difference between the reference(s) and the claims are as follows: JP 06-267544 does not disclose various plastic deformation methods, cycles of cold work and recrystallization annealing, and amount of special grain boundaries. However, the invention defined in a product-by-process claim is a product, not a process. In re Bridgeford, 357 F. 2d 679, 149 USPQ 55 (CCPA 1966) and MPEP § 2113. It is the patentability of the product claimed and not of the recited process steps which must be established. See In re Brown, 459 F. 2d 531, 173 USPQ 685 (CCPA 1972). The guidance that has been provided by court on this matter is

[i]f the product in a product-by-process claim is the same as or obvious from a product of the prior art, the claim is unpatentable even though the prior product was made by a different process.

See In re Thorpe, 777 F.2d 695, 227 USPQ 964, 966 (Fed. Cir. 1985). When applicant's and prior art's products are to be identical or substantially identical, the burden shifts to applicant to provide evidence that the prior art product does not inherently possess the claimed properties. In re Best, 562 F.2d 1252, 1255, 195 USPQ 430, 433-34 (CCPA 1977); In re Fessmann, 489 F.2d 742, 745 180 USPQ 324, 326 (CCPA 1974); and In re Fitzgerald, 619 F.2d 67, 70, 205 USPQ 594, 596 (CCPA 1980).

8. Claims 28 and 30 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over JP06-267544 as applied to claims above, and further in view of USP 5298350 to Rao (col. 6, lines 6-12).

9. Claim 28 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over JP06-267544 as applied to claims above, and further in view of JP 54056928 (abstract) or DE 2758940 (abstract).

10. The claimed subject matter as is disclosed and rejected above by JP06-267544 except for the Ag content. However, Rao, JP 54056928, or DE 2758940 teaches Ag is a known optional element for Pb-Sn-Ca battery electrode materials in the same field of endeavor or the analogous metallurgical art for sealed battery. The Pb-Sn-Ca-Ag alloy combination would reduce gas evolution and improve strength and corrosion resistance (see DE 2758940 abstract). It has been held that combining known ingredient having known functions, to provide a composition having the additive effect of each of the known functions is within realm of performance of ordinary skill artisan. In re Castner, 186 USPQ 213 (217). The use of conventional materials to perform their known functions in a conventional process is obvious. In re Raner, 134 USPQ 343 (CCPA 1962).

Conclusion

Applicant is reminded that when amendment and/or revision is required, applicant should therefore specifically point out the support for any amendments made to the disclosure. See 37 C.F.R. § 1.121.
